

MEDIA RELEASE FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Contact:

Ms. Marcie Bergan
Southeast NH Habitat for Humanity
executivedirector@senhhabitat.org
603-433-9555

Boston, MA — Southeast New Hampshire Habitat for Humanity (SENH Habitat) was excited to be presented with a $10,000 donation by the Globalaw Foundation at the GLAMM gala on September 23, 2022. The gala was held at the John J. Moakley Court House during the conclusion of the Globalaw Annual Meeting in Boston which was hosted by Hinckley Allen.

Globalaw Foundation Chair, Marco Bolognini, said “We are proud to be supportive with Habitat for Humanity. They do a great job. From the Globalaw Foundation we gladly give our help to those charities that fit our goals for a better, fairer and more sustainable world.”

SENH Habitat’s Executive Director, Marcie Bergan and Board Member, Meg Rotondo attended the event at the invite from fellow Board Member, John Sokul, Jr. Sokul is a partner at Hinckley Allen and a leading real estate attorney in Boston and New Hampshire. John indicated that Hinckley Allen was honored to host the annual meeting for Globalaw, an international network of mid-sized law firms. The 2022 gathering has particular significance as it is the first time a Globalaw annual meeting has been held since the pandemic.

The group attending the annual meeting held a fundraiser and the proceeds were designated to SENH Habitat to help with their current project of building a home for a Veteran family. “What a wonderful opportunity to meet so many wonderful people (attorneys from around the globe) and to be the recipient of such a tremendous gift,” shared Bergan. “We are grateful for the welcome we received and for the generosity of such a distinguished group.”

SENH Habitat as well as Habitats from around the world partner with corporate and individual donors and volunteers like Hinckley Allen and Globalaw Foundation to build affordable homes for people in need. “Because Habitat, like Globalaw, is a worldwide organization, I felt it a great fit for this event and our fundraising efforts. I am so pleased to be able to be part of such a great, mission-driven organization like Habitat for Humanity.” John went on to say that he would like to thank all of his Globalaw colleagues for their generosity and their commitment to making a meaningful difference in the lives of those less fortunate.

About Habitat:

SENH Habitat is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization that strengthens families and develops communities by partnering with corporations, like-minded community groups, faith-based organizations, and individual volunteers to build and renovate simple, decent, affordable homes with hard-working people who are in need. For more information about SENH Habitat, visit www.SENHHabitat.org or call 603-433-9555.

About Globalaw Foundation:

The Globalaw Foundation aims helping young people to access legal education and training. At Globalaw Foundation we strongly believe in new generations and their potential to achieve a better and fairer world through a wider legal culture to be globally spread as an indispensable tool for peace and democracy. Please visit <https://globalaw.net/globalaw-foundation/> for more information.